Gavel Changes Hands

TCC's Board of Trustees has a new chairman. He's Dr. Dewey H. Tuggle, Jr., a Tacoma dentist. Dr. Tuggle, who was appointed to the Board in 1969, was elected March 23 to succeed Robert Yamashita. Donald E. Anderson was elected vice chairman. Both Dr. Tuggle and Anderson will serve from April 4 to June 30, 1973. Board actions included recognition of the Tacoma Community College Federation of Teachers as the official representative of academic employees (TCCFT won the bargaining election March 16 with 111 votes to 54 for the Tacoma Community College Association) . . . granting of tenure to six faculty members -- Richard C. Spangler, Mrs. Clara M. Cox, Mrs. Georgia McDade, Dr. Dale Potter, Mrs. Carole Steadman and Frank Weihs . . . and approval of a $10,300 low bid to install lighting in the college's new parking lots.

You Name It; We Probably Teach It

Variety of non-credit community service courses -- ranging from astrology to yoga -- will be offered this spring at TCC. Classes begin the week of April 10, and registration is scheduled for 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. April 3-7 and 6 to 8:30 p.m. April 3-6 in Building 6. The 55 courses include eight conversational languages, money management, investments, art, dance, music, astronomy, geology, antiques and many more. For information, phone the Community Services Office at TCC, LO 4-7200, Ext. 224.

Names in the News

Donald A. Hiatt, chairman of TCC's Speech-Drama Department, was honored March 17 when the Washington State Speech Association presented him its Distinguished Service Award . . . Jack H.
