TRANSFER INFORMATION DAY SET

FOR FEBRUARY 8

Representatives from 14 four-year colleges and universities will be on campus Tuesday, February 8.

They will be here to help students in planning curriculum selection and to assist in the transfer transition to programs at the various four-year institutions.

The representatives will be available between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. in the library lobby.

At 9:30 a.m. an informal coffee and orientation will be held in the John Binns Room, and from 1 to 1:30 p.m. faculty and staff members will be welcome to meet with the representatives in the Binns Room.

Visiting TCC that day will be admissions officers from: Central Washington State College, Eastern Washington State College, Evergreen State College, Gonzaga University, Pacific Lutheran University, St. Martin's College, Seattle Pacific College, Seattle University, University of Puget Sound, University of Washington, Washington State University, Western Washington State College and Whitworth College.

BLACK AWARENESS WEEK

HAS VARIED SCHEDULE

Films, food, music and song will serve to highlight Black Awareness Week at TCC, February 14 to 18.

All events will be held in the campus theater, Bldg. 3, starting at 12:30 p.m.

Monday, Feb. 14, three films are scheduled: "Up from the Roots," "I Have A Dream" and "Oh Freedom."

Tuesday, Feb. 15, students will share thoughts on Black awareness during a "rap" session.

Wednesday, Feb. 16, the New Jerusalem Junior Choir will sing during a session highlighting religion.

Thursday, Feb. 17, culture will be the theme with art exhibits done by McNeil Island Penitentiary inmates, displays of Indian art work and demonstrations of the martial arts.

Friday, Feb. 18, soul food dinner and fashion show will close the week. The menu includes fried chicken, potato salad, greens, corn bread and pinto beans.

During the dinner students will be selling baked goods. Tickets for Friday's dinner cost $2.00 for adults, $1.50 for children.

For more information call 756-5159.

AUDITIONS FOR "FANTASTICKS"

SET FOR FEB 3 TO 5

Auditions for TCC's presentation of the musical "The Fantasticks" will be held Thursday through Saturday, February 3 through 5.

February 3 and 4, auditions will be held in TCC's Bldg. 4-4, starting at 7 p.m. Auditions February 5 will be held in the campus theater starting at 10 a.m. Accompanist can be provided at audition site.

"The Fantasticks" will be presented by the TCC fine arts department May 13 through 22 in the campus theater under the direction of Gene Nelson, TCC music department.

Chuck Cline, TCC drama department, will be technical director. Nine or ten parts need to be filled.

"The Fantasticks," by Harvey Schmidt, is a light-hearted musical about young love, parents and human nature.

TCC PEOPLE, PLACES AND FACES

MARY KENNEDY was given special praise in a recent edition of The College Store Journal for her work on the publication's editorial board and her use of The Journal in the TCC bookstore.

LYNN NIELSON, teaching aide for the past five years at TCC, has left her position. Working in the English-communications skills lab in Bldg. 7 is ANNE TEIGEN. . . and in Bldg. 14 MOZENA GAINER has packed her belongings and headed for Europe. Working in Paula Pascoe's office in her stead is CONSUELLA WESLEY.

Glad you are with us!

BROWN BAG LUNCH HELPS WOMEN

MEET EACH OTHER

The women's weekly brown bag sessions are held in the Library Conference Room on Thursdays from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

The informal "rap" sessions are sponsored by AWARE for all campus women who would like to share ideas and concerns in a relaxed atmosphere.

TWO WORKSHOPS STUDY DUAL ROLE AND DEALING WITH IT

The art of being in two places at once will be examined during two workshops set for February 5 and 12 at TCC.

The "Dual Role Workshops" are designed for people who are combinations of student, parent, wage earner, spouse and home maker.

The sessions will be held in Bldg. 1 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Studied will be time management, priorities and keeping peace and happiness in the family.

Child care will be provided. For further information call 756-5180. Coordinator of the workshops is Pat Shuman, TCC Home and Family Life program coordinator.

BOARD HIGHLIGHTS

Flowers and thanks were the order of the day at Thursday afternoon's regular meeting of the TCC Board of Trustees.

ASB president Irish McKinney presented new Board members Mildred Jeynes and Sally Starke with corsages and best wishes from the student body.

Chairperson Ellen Pinto made a special presentation to former Board member Lewis Hatfield of a certificate which in part thanked Mr. Hatfield for his years of service on the TCC Board during the college's "time of birth, its time of growth and its time of hope."

Joe Betz, TCC math instructor who spent the last quarter in Arizona participating in a teacher exchange, said he was glad to be home and that he highly recommends the experience of exchange teaching.

Correspondence shared with the Board included a letter to Lorraine Stephan, associate dean for occupational education, thanking her for her work with the State Real Estate Workshops; and a letter from George Huffman, TCCFT president, announcing the election of the union officers for the coming term.

New TCCFT officers will be Jerry McCourt, president; Joan Morris, vice-president; Dick Lewis, secretary; and George Huffman, treasurer. Labor council delegates will be Pam Huddleston, Frank Weihs and George Huffman.

Dr. Robert Rhule, dean of instruction, told the Board that $5,729 has been awarded in federal funds for nursing student scholarships and that in September all 1976 TCC medical records technician graduates passed the national accreditation examination, scoring higher than the national mean.

Funding for a real estate workshop, a skills and survival workshop, administration of justice curriculum and the McNeil business program has been arranged, he reported.

Carl Brown presented the administrative services report to the Board and included the information that the Schoenfeld-Gardner Foundation has presented to the college $250 for the continuation of the minority affairs office book loan program. This is the third Schoenfeld-Gardner Foundation grant awarded to the college. He also said that the African-American Cultural Center has been relocated to 2502 Tacoma Avenue. Ron Wilson, administrator of the center, said he would keep the Board informed about activities at the new center.

Dean Brown also announced that the CETA program has been set with an expiration date of March 31, 1977, but possible funding of CETA employees might extend through July 15, 1977.

At the close of the meeting Betty Knauf, Phi Theta Kappa, TCC scholastic honorary, presented the Board with two new flags which had been purchased with proceeds of the Phi Theta Kappa bake sale.

The two new Board members were formally welcomed by Ellen Pinto, and a letter was read from former Board member Richard Evans. The letter commended the TCC community for its "concern for others" and extended his best wishes.

Next regular meeting of the Board was set for February 24 at 2 p.m. in the Binns Room.
