

TACOMA COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Bulletin

Monday, November 24, 1975

Vol. XI ,No. 8

THIS IS URGENT!

EARLY DEADLINE !

Next week's bulletin has to go to press in two days because of the holiday break.

Please submit all material for next week to the editor (CIO office, building 14) by 2 p.m. tomorrow.

BOOKSTORE OPEN THIS MONDAY AND TUESDAY EVENING

Because of the Thanksgiving holiday coming up, the bookstore will be open tonight and tomorrow night.

Normally, they are open Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

INTERSQUAD GAME SET

The TCC Intersquad game will be held tonight starting at 7:30 p.m. in the gym.

The game will be open to the public and is free.

CHRISTMAS BUYING AT THE BOOKSTORE

Gift certificates for books and other items are available at the bookstore.

Coloring books which will help support Friends of the TCC Library are a great buy at three dollars. Crayons are available as well. (Editor's recommendation: the spooky one.)

Caps and gowns are still on sale for faculty members. Order now for Christmas giving.

FIRST HOME GAME DECEMBER 3

The first home game for the Titans is December 3, Wednesday, against the University of Washington frosh.

Season tickets are available for ten dollars for ten games from: Joe Betz, Bldg. 20; Ed McNeal, Bldg. 9; Loyd Percy, Bldg. 17; Jerry Shulenbarger, Bldg. 19; and Joe Kosai, Bldg. 14.

FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIPS
AVAILABLE TO TCC STUDENTS

Again this year, TCC students have been invited to apply for the Scottish Rite Foundation scholarships.

Any sophomore with a minimum 3.0 grade point average is eligible to apply for the $500 renewable scholarships.

The scholarships are to be used for the student's junior year at any college or university in this state.

There is no restriction on the field of study.

DON'T FORGET THE CHRISTMAS CONCERT

The Christmas concert this year will be held December 3, starting at 8 p.m. in the Building Three Theater.

Featured will be the jazz workshop band or TCC stage band, and soloists from Jan Seferian's vocal class.

It will be a great way to welcome the Christmas season.... plan to attend.

FELLOWSHIP APPLICATIONS AVAILABLE

Executive Director Arthur

Binnie, State Commission for Vocational Education, has announced that applications are now being accepted for fellowships funded by the federal Education Professions Development Act (Section 552).

Information available from: EPDA Fellowship, State of Washington, Commission for Vocational Education, Olympia WA 98504.

NEW TELECOURSE TO BE OFFERED
DURING WINTER QUARTER

The course is History 288, The Adams Chronicles, and it starts Wednesday, January 14, at 4 p.m.

It is a combination of a 13 week series of documentaries about four generations of the Adams family of Boston with a weekly lecture discussion conducted by George Huffman

The course is offered for five history credits.

The series will be telecast over channels 62, 56 and 9 each Tuesday evening at 9 p.m., starting January 20.

The on-campus sessions will be held Wednesday at 4 p.m., Building 1, Room 13, and Thursday at 7 p.m. in the same room.

Students enrolling through regular TCC enrollment procedure can do so during regular registration.

To simplify registration for those who wish to take only the Adams Chronicles course, the registrar's office has arranged to register students in the hour preceding the first meeting of each session.

STUDENT TEXT BOOK SWAP SET

Students can turn in their used textbooks right after final exams to the ASTCC "Book Swap".

The "swap" will be held in building 15 on the following dates:

December 8-11: 11:30 a.m.-

1:30 p.m.

January 5-9 : 8 a.m.-2 p.m.

6 p.m.-9 p.m.

January 10 : 10 a.m.- 1 p.m.

HOLD OFF BUYING THOSE BOOKS
FOR WINTER QUARTER

Students have been arriving in the bookstore asking for books which are not yet in stock.

Mary Kennedy would like people to know that the winter quarter books have been ordered and some should be available by the first week in December.

Students who purchase the books they think they might need next quarter now are running the risk of having to go back to the bookstore for a refund.

In time, all textbooks will be available.

BOOST THE TITANS--
GET YOUR TICKETS NOW!

The Titans will meet the team from Spokane Falls at 9 p.m. this Friday evening for their first game of the Bellevue Tip-Off Tourney.

All the games will be played in the Bellevue Community College gym.

Subsequent games will be determined by wins.

Competing in this year's tournament are teams from Bellevue, Tacoma, Mount Hood, Fort Steilacoom, Spokane Falls, Yakima, and the Pacific Lutheran J.V.

The Titans have won all of the tip-off tournaments since their inception in 1971.

Attend and cheer our boys on to an unblemished record!

P.3.

OBI FOOD DRIVE SUCCESSFUL--
NEW PROJECT FOR CHRISTMAS GIVING SET

The members of the Obi Society have accumulated over 25 food baskets for the needy.

The food will be gathered and packed in boxes this Wednesday morning.

Meanwhile, the ASTCC is planning a CHRISTMAS ART FAIR AND SALE for December 4 and 5 in the library. Members of the faculty and staff who have hand-made art objects or food to sell are asked to contribute.

Participants will sell their own goods, and ten per cent of the proceeds will go the ASTCC for food baskets for needy families.

To set up a booth, contact Sande Spark at 756-5154 or 637-4839.
